STEVE WILSON QUARTET

SEP 14, 2019
3:00 PM & 8:00 PM

Centre culturel franco-manitobain (CCFM),
Salle Pauline-Boutal, 340 Provencher Blvd.

"among the best New York jazz has to offer" New York Times

When saxophonist STEVE WILSON headed to New York as a young musician, he didn't know that within 10 years he'd be the subject of a New York Times feature, "A Sideman's Life." At current count, he has contributed his distinctive sound and consummate musicianship to well over 100 recordings by leading jazz artists—including at least half a dozen Grammy winners. He has also released a dozen critically-acclaimed recordings as a leader.

Wilson's projects include a cutting-edge quartet, two dynamic duos, and an elegant trio. In 2011, he celebrated his 50th birthday with a six-night engagement at NYC's Jazz Standard, featuring five different all-star bands.

We're thrilled to kick off our season with the Steve Wilson Quartet!

Straight Ahead from Havana

IGNACIO BERROA TRIO

OCT 19, 2019
3:00 PM & 8:00 PM

Centre culturel franco-manitobain (CCFM),
Salle Pauline-Boutal, 340 Provencher Blvd.

"one is witness to what can only be described as a performance of silken power" Latin Jazz Network

Cuban-born IGNACIO BERROA is one of the most versatile and highly respected drummers in jazz. He was in his early twenties in 1980 when he came to New York from Cuba, and within a year had been invited to join Dizzy Gillespie's band.

Dizzy famously tagged Berroa as "the only Latin drummer in the world in the history of American music that intimately knows both worlds: his native Afro-Cuban music as well as Jazz..." His trio's most recent recording, Straight Ahead from Havana, gives full play to that extraordinary versatility.

Don't miss the cross-cultural fire and grace of the Ignacio Berroa Trio!

"DUCHESS...is a serious musical force, but it makes some seriously friendly music." All About Jazz

Sure-footed swing, sweet-toned harmony, and ever-insouciant charm are embodied in the jazz vocal trio DUCHESS, featuring notable New York singers Amy Cervini, Hilary Gardner, and Melissa Stylianou. They released their eponymous debut recording in 2015, channeling the 1930s inspiration of the virtuosic Boswell sisters. Their 2017 follow-up, Laughing at Life, garnered rave reviews, prompting Downbeat Magazine to declare, "For a good time, call Duchess." Last year, they released their critically-acclaimed Harmony for the Holidays.

Blending the classic and the contemporary, the trio has performed at major festivals and esteemed jazz clubs throughout the United States, Canada, and Israel, rightly earning a reputation for beautiful singing and big fun.

Get ready for beautiful harmonies, delightful chatter, and rich nostalgia with Duchess!

"Cohen is a young piano virtuoso with a delicate touch, assured, swaggering swing feel, and debonair flow" New York Times

Winner of the American Jazz Pianist Competition and finalist in the Thelonious Monk International Piano Competition, EMMET COHEN is quickly forging a name for himself as a leader and composer.

For Cohen, jazz is "about communicating the deepest levels of humanity and individuality; it's essentially about connections." Whether he's playing standards or new work, his sparkling technique and quicksilver ideas have a contemporary energy, but are deeply rooted in his respect for the jazz tradition. One of his current recording projects is the Masters Legacy Series; the first two volumes, featuring drummer Jimmy Cobb and bassist Ron Carter, have set a high bar with critics and listeners.

Don't miss this talented young trio!

World Class Vibes

JOE LOCKE QUARTET

MAY 2, 2020
8:00 PM

MAY 3, 2020
2:00 PM & 7:30 PM

Berney Theatre, Rady JCC,
123 Doncaster

"Charismatically skilful" The Guardian

We close our season with vibraphonist JOE LOCKE, "one of the world's most versatile vibes masters" (Hot House). Five-time recipient of the Jazz Journalists Association's Mallet Instrumentalist of the Year award, and leader on more than 30 recordings, Locke brings intensity, subtlety, and intelligence to everything he plays.

Fostered by vibes master Bobby Hutchison, Locke's expressive musicality is equally at home with elegant jazz standards and edgy new work reflecting tough social realities. He is making his mark not only as a world-class instrumentalist, but "as a unique and adventurous musical voice" (San Francisco Bay Journal).

Be part of a Winnipeg welcome for the Joe Locke Quartet!
