Berney Theatre - Rady JCC - 123 Doncaster Street

Welcome to the 2023 Winnipeg International Jewish Film Festival

This year, in honour of the 75th anniversary of the State of Israel, we are putting a particular focus on contemporary films from that country.

Israel's film industry is as prolific as it is creative, with films that range from the humorous to the heart stirring and the tragic. Little wonder it has captured the world's attention. This year the Winnipeg International Jewish Film Festival is proud to present some of the best Israeli movies of recent years including those that have swept local and international awards.

Most, but not all of the in-person screenings will be available for viewers. None of the in-person programming around a film will be available to the virtual audience. This is for technical reasons, and we appreciate your understanding.

IN-PERSON

In-person screenings will be shown at the Berney Theatre - 123 Doncaster Street plus five off-screen venues (see page 4 for venues).

VIRTUAL

If you aren't able to join us at the Berney for in-person screenings, view films at home (or at the cottage) with our virtual component.

- Virtual films will be released on the same day as the in person screenings but are available for a 48-hour window – you can view the film at your own convenience, at any time during that 48-hour period.
- Virtual films can be streamed on any “smart” device: a smart TV, a desktop or laptop computer, a tablet, or even a smartphone. There are various ways you can connect these devices to your home TV.

Karaoke

Narrative | Israel 2022 | Director: Moshe Rosenthal | Hebrew with English Subtitles | 100 minutes

“Karaoke is a real gift to all involved, to the audience who will watch it and to Israel’s cinema.”

– Oron Shamir, Ha’aretz

A bittersweet comedy about Meir and Tova, a middle-class suburban couple in their 60s, who are drawn to their new neighbor, Itzik, a charismatic bachelor who invites them to his penthouse for karaoke evenings. The couple, enthralled by Itzhik, enter into a competition amongst their other neighbors and soon between themselves for his attention.

Barren

Narrative | Israel 2022 | Director: Mordechai Vardi | Hebrew with English subtitles | 108 minutes

Set in the mystical city of Safed, Barren centers around a young, childless ultra-Orthodox couple, Feigi and Naftali. When Naftali travels to Ukraine to pray for a child at Rabbi Nachman's grave, a guest invited by Feigi's in-laws, claiming to be a healer of barren women, convinces Feigi to undergo his treatments, to traumatic effect. As the couple work through their crisis, complicated questions about abuse of power, duty and faith are raised. Vardi is a rabbi as well as filmmaker and screenwriter. His thoughtful script invites us into an ultra-Orthodox community that is complex and multi-faceted. But perhaps his greatest gift to the audience are the film's utterly believable, three dimensional characters.

Where Life Begins

Narrative | Italy/France | 2022 | Director: Stephane Freiss | Italian and French with English subtitles | 100 Minutes

In this subdued romantic drama, Freiss takes us to the lush and fragrant lemon fields of Italy. Every year, a French ultra-Orthodox rabbi and his family come to a lemon farm in Calabria to carry out a sacred mission: harvesting citrons for Sukkot. Among the family is daughter Esther who has become increasingly dissatisfied with the constraints of the world she inhabits. She meets Elio, the farm's owner, who is himself trying to recapture the harmony of his past. Do they dare see in each other a path to a new life? Where Life Begins is a compelling, often raw depiction of the pain of questioning one's faith and community. And the knowledge that there are no easy answers.

Who's Afraid of Jewish Humor?

Second Showing:
Thursday, May 18
2:00 pm

Documentary | Germany | 2022 | Director: Jascha Hannover | German, French, Hebrew with English subtitles and in English | 75 minutes

From Hershel of Ostropol to Lenny Bruce, Ephraim Kishon to Mel Brooks, if there is one thing that unites all Jews, it's their self-deprecating, hilarious sense of humour, or so the myth goes. This fascinating and in-depth documentary takes a serious look at Jewish humour through a variety of perspectives – from the Torah to psychoanalysis to centuries'-old antisemitism. From the film's central conversation about the source and meaning of popular Jewish jokes, emerges a provocative debate about the thin line separating self-deprecation from stereotypes, especially when the tropes come from outside the culture. With compelling commentary from thinkers in Germany, France, Israel and the US. This is the kind of documentary that you'll also want to discuss long after you leave the theatre.

Matchmaking

Rom Com | Israel 2022 | Director: Erez Tadmor | Hebrew with English subtitles | 98 minutes

Moti Bernstein has it all: he comes from a good Ashkenazi family, is a brilliant Yeshiva Bucher, and he's not bad looking either. In short: a perfect catch for every bride. Moti is set up with the best matches in his Orthodox Jewish community. But his heart beats for the one girl he can never have. Or can he? Witty, fast paced, and sweetly romantic, Matchmaking is a Romeo and Juliet story (with a happier ending) and Israel's box office hit of the year.

"Full of hijinks, jokes and slapstick humor... along with plenty of one-liners about spicy salads and noodle kugels."

Simone Veil: A Woman of the Century

Biographical Drama | France | 2022 |
Director: Olivier Dahan | French with English
Subtitles | 138 minutes

Simone Veil (1927-2017) was one of France's most admired figures. This epic bio-pic, France's box office hit of 2022, is an homage to her extraordinary life and legacy – from her childhood in a happy family of assimilated Jews in Nice, to their deportation to Auschwitz to the political and moral battles she relentlessly and courageously fought throughout her adult life. In her work on prison reform as a pioneering French magistrate, as Health Minister fighting for and winning abortion rights for French women and, later, as the president of the European parliament, Veil was a fearless crusader for human dignity.

First to Stand: The Cases and Causes of Irwin Cotler

Documentary | Canada | 2022 | Director
Irene Lilienheim Angelico | English |
86 minutes

First to Stand follows Canadian lawyer Irwin Cotler and his team of young activists at the Raoul Wallenberg Centre, as they take on the cases and causes of political prisoners and human rights activists battling against the world's most repressive regimes. Cotler began fighting for freedom and justice in law school with the landmark case of Russian refusenik Natan Sharansky, and remains today one of the world's most effective activists in the protection of human rights.

SHTTL

Second Showing: Wednesday, May 24, 2:00 pm

Historical drama | France/Ukraine | 2022 | Director: Ady Walter |
Yiddish with English subtitles | 114 minutes

SHTTL is set in an isolated Yiddish village in Ukraine. The shtetl is like so many others with all its argumentative and colourful characters. But the opening shot tells us the date – June 21, 1941 – and we know from the start we are witnessing the last twenty fours of this community. The next day the Nazis will invade the Soviet Union in the operation known as Barbarossa.

This is the young French director's feature film (he also wrote the script). His single take film is a triumph, with masterful storytelling, stunning black and white cinematography and superb acting from an international cast of actors speaking Yiddish, including Canadian Saul Rubinek.

“SHTTL’ is already one of the year’s best films.”

– Reel News Daily

“It’s the kind of film most filmmakers dream their entire lives of making, and Walter has made his masterpiece right out of the gate.”

The Artist's Daughter: Oil on Canvas

Documentary | Israel | 2022 | Director: Margarita Linton, Yaniv Linton | Hebrew and Russian with English subtitles | 59 minutes

The filmmaker joins a guided tour of an exhibition by a famous painter. The man in the self-portraits is her father, with whom she's estranged. She contacts the artist for the first time in a decade and shares her idea of making a film about their relationship, rekindled by his artwork. Excited, the artist sends her to film his exhibition. As the work on the film develops, she discovers that meeting the man behind the portraits is her real challenge. The Artist's Daughter paints a bewildering, surprising portrait of a relationship with an empowering ending.

1341 Frames of Love and War

Documentary | Israel, UK, USA | 2022 | Director: Ran Tal | Hebrew with English subtitles | 89 minutes

Micha Bar-Am is a member of the famed photojournalism collective Magnum and Israel's most celebrated war photographer. As he mines his extraordinary archive of over half a million negatives for the documentary, questions and self-doubt surface. The film becomes a profound exploration of photography, memory, and the personal cost of a life devoted to recording a conflict.

Winner 2023 Best Documentary Jury Prize, Atlanta Jewish Film Festival

POST-FILM DISCUSSION:

The film will be followed by a Q&A with Director Ran Tal (via Zoom)

"An accessible survey of remarkable photo-journalism, an oblique chronicle of Israel in the second half of the twentieth century, and a warm profile of an engaging, sympathetic individual."

Let It Be Morning

Narrative | Israel | 2021 | Director: Eran Kolirin | Arabic and Hebrew with English subtitles | 101 minutes

An invitation to his brother's wedding brings Sami, and his wife and son, a Palestinian family that holds Israeli citizenship, back to the small village where Sami grew up. When the village is unexpectedly put under a military lockdown, Sami is forced to face what he has been running away from. At times satirical, this film is ultimately an humanistic look at personal, political and social conflict.

Our (Almost Completely True) Story

Comedy/Drama | USA | 2022 | Director: Don Scardino | English | 92 Minutes

A tall, aging “shiksa” icon meets a short Jewish comedian in a bird store – what are the chances? This is the almost completely true story of veteran actress Mariette Hartley and comic impersonator Jerry Sroka, who’s also been wading through L.A.’s insufferable dating scene. Written by and starring Hartley and Sroka, Our (Almost Completely True) Story shares the hilarious, vulnerable realities for aging actors and the search for love as seniors in Hollywood.

Drama | France/Belgium | 2021 | Director: Fred Cavayé | French with English subtitles | 115 Minutes

Occupied Paris, 1941: Jeweler Joseph Haffmann arranges for his family to flee the city and offers his employee François Mercier the chance to take over his home and shop until the war’s end. As Mercier and his wife move into the Haffmann home, the agreement turns into a Faustian bargain, one that will forever change the fate of all... Rich in moral complexity with plot twists and turns to keep viewers on the edge of their seat, this is big-screen cinema at its finest.

Comedy | Israel | 2022 | Director: Asaf Kobrovsky | Hebrew and French with English subtitles | 92 minutes

A comedy of errors that involves a mix up of three shipping containers that have been smuggled into Israel. The snafu brings together Arabs, Orthodox Jews, Russian immigrants, a gay couple and the innocent scion of a mafioso on the eve of his wedding. All must join forces to solve the mishap. Though Hummus is a hilarious action-packed comedy, with a satirical bite, it also manages to deliver messages of community and underlying cooperation in spite of everything.

Narrative | Israel | 2021 | Director: Orit Fouks Rotem | Hebrew and Arabic with English subtitles | 91 minutes

In this documentary-style narrative, eight Israeli women, four Muslim and four Jewish, take part in a filmmaking workshop in a small town in Northern Israel as part of a community program to learn new skills. The women are given the assignment to film their lives and share the footage with the group. The group dynamic forces the women to challenge their beliefs even as the film course helps empower them. This natural-feeling drama necessarily touches on thorny issues, but stays away from didacticism.

Documentary | USA | 2022 | Director: Roberta Grossman | Hebrew, German with English subtitles and in English | 84 minutes

In the aftermath of the Holocaust, German and Jewish leaders met in secret to negotiate the unthinkable – compensation for the survivors of the largest mass genocide in history. Survivors were in urgent need of help, but how could reparations be determined for the unprecedented destruction and suffering of a people? Directed by award-winning filmmaker Roberta Grossman, Reckonings is the first documentary feature to chronicle the harrowing process of negotiating German reparations for the Jewish people, which resulted in the groundbreaking Luxembourg Agreements of 1952.

“Reckonings might not be a lengthy documentary but it is an important contribution to cinema exploring the aftermath in the post-Holocaust years.”

The Last Suit

Narrative | Argentina/Poland/Spain | 2018 | Director Pablo Solarz | Spanish, Yiddish with English subtitles | 91 minutes

Abraham Bursztein, a feisty, 88-year old retired tailor and Shoah survivor living in Buenos Aires, runs away from the care home his family have put him in, to Poland (by way of Madrid, Paris and the country he vowed never to set foot in). In Lodz, he aims to find the friend who saved him from certain death at the end of World War II seventy years after they last saw each other. A road trip movie with heart, humour and a dash of King Lear.

The Other Widow

Drama | Israel | 2022 | Director: Ma'ayan Rypp | Hebrew with English subtitles | 83 minutes

A dark comedic drama about Ella, a 34-year-old theater dresser and mistress, who experiences the sudden death of her lover. She attends his Shivah while keeping her identity under wraps and dives into a world once forbidden to her. Through intimate encounters with his brother, parents, and, most especially, his icy wife Natasha, Ella examines her place in his life and eventually demands her legitimate right to mourn. This is director Rypp's first feature film and it was developed in the Cannes residency program.

Historical Biography | USA | 2022 | Directors: Jeff Hutchens, Derek Goldman | English | 95 minutes

"All I can say is that I saw it, and it is the truth." In a filmed version of his one-man stage piece, Academy-Award nominee David Strathairn delivers a virtuoso performance as Polish Underground member Jan Karski. Karski risked his life to carry the first eyewitness reports of war-torn Poland to the Western world, and ultimately, the Oval Office. Strathairn brilliantly captures the complexity and legacy of Karski and recreates the horrors that Karski endured. Using nothing more than a table, two chairs and a suit jacket, the film is a study in minimalist eloquence.

Judas

Narrative | Israel | 2022 | Director: Dan Wolman | Hebrew with English subtitles | 85 minutes

A beautiful cinematic adaptation of Amos Oz's book, Judas is both a cerebral drama and a tender coming-of-age story. Shmuel Ash has stopped working on his thesis, which dealt with Jewish views of Jesus, and takes a job as companion to the elderly and intellectually combative Gershom Wald. The two grapple about Jesus's humanity and the betrayal of Judas Iscariot. Things get complicated when Shmuel falls in love with Wald's widowed daughter-in-law, Atalia. This story of tangle of relationships also touches on the roots of antisemitism, the origins of the Jewish-Arab conflict, and complex realities in Israel. A low key film about big ideas.

POST-FILM DISCUSSION:

Belle Jarniewski, Executive Director, Jewish Heritage Centre of Western Canada, and James Christie, former Dean of Theology at the University of Winnipeg, explore collisions of characters in Amos Oz' novel Judas framed by the ancient collision of Christianity and Judaism.

June Zero

Historical Drama | Israel | 2022 | Director: Jake Paltrow | Hebrew and Spanish with English subtitles | 105 minutes

The 1961 trial of Final Solution architect Adolf Eichmann is revisited in a gripping and unusual vision from American director Jake Paltrow. The story is told from the point of view of three Israelis: Eichmann's Jewish Moroccan prison guard; a Holocaust survivor; and a 13-year-old Jewish Libyan immigrant who is tasked with helping work on disposing of the condemned Eichmann's body. Paltrow's vividly textured work – the film is largely shot on 16mm film to give a 1960s feel – uses these disparate points of view to paint an image of the diasporic Jewish people and a defining moment in Israeli history.
